

Hello to all Gateway Theatre Guild subscribers & Facebook Followers.

Annual General Meeting

Gateway Theatre Guild Annual General Meeting will be taking place on Tuesday September 29, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. Please mark this date down and join us.

As we are still not permitted to have large gatherings, the Board has determined to hold the AGM through a Google Meets Meeting.

We will send the co-ordinates out to our membership, sponsors and all people who are on our email list (if you are getting this newsletter you are on our email list).

Message from the President

Hullo to all GTG supporters out there! What a strange time this is. A whole host of plans for GTG activities were about to be announced when the pandemic hit, and everything was put on hold. But stay tuned – as soon as we are able to, activities of different kinds will resume, including productions, workshops, talks, celebrations of cultural diversity and “new arrivals” in North Bay, reminiscences, play-readings, and more. Speaking of which ...

Fall Show

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, there will be no regular Fall production by GTG.

However, stay tuned for a special, one-off Virtual Play-Reading of Abstinence, by Lanford Wilson, directed by Johanna McPherson. The cast will include Joanne Bernier, Maureen Cassidy, Zac Silva, and Gavin Pigeau. The streaming will be in October – date and time tba!

Board of Director Member

Our highlighted Board member for this newsletter is Keegan MacNeil-Kettle, VP Artistic. Keegan just recently played Antipholus of Syracuse in GTG’s production of The Comedy of Errors. Previous stage credits include Jeremi Scott in House in Virginia, Simon Stimson in Our Town, and Donka Rue in One Man, All Woman (Winner of On The Edge Fringe - Outstanding Production 2018). Film credits include The Matron and Minutes with Canadore College, Carter on CTV Drama and the upcoming tv series The Trickster, airing on CBC in 2020.

The Board of Directors are very lucky to have Keegan as the VP Artistic and we thank him for the countless hours of volunteering he does for our organization.
