Upcoming Workshop!

We are so pleased to have Anna Iati-Hamilton offer “Producing without Tears” – how to produce a successful theatre show. Anna has produced countless GTG shows and devotes many hours to helping make GTG a success. If you have an interest in learning what it takes to produce, this is the workshop for you! Producing is vital to every show’s success and having people with a keen interest and knowledge is so important to making sure we are able to attract the attention and funding needed to bring our community the high quality productions everyone is used to!

Date: Wednesday, June 12, 2024
 Time: 6:30 p.m.
 Location: Auditorium, North Bay Public Library
 Cost: FREE!

Email presidentgtg@gmail.com to register. Maximum 12 people.

New and Local Play Reading!

Our next New and Local play reading will take place on Saturday, June 22nd, 2024 at 12:30 in the Mezzanine Room at the North Bay Public Library. We will be reading Derek Neal’s “Priestly Fellowship”. We need 8 readers, 7 males and 1 female. If you are interested in reading, please email presidentgtg@gmail.com. It is so exciting to be involved with the development of new work!

We have started a GoFundMe Campaign to raise money to help preserve our 75 years of history. We were fortunate to receive a grant from the Northern Ontario Heritage Fund to hire an Archiving and Promotions Officer, but we need some help to get all the equipment and supplies. The goal of the project is to both digitize and physically preserve our over 7 decades worth of history making is accessible to the wider community. If you would like to donate, here is a link (or scan the QR above). Please feel free to share!

Not Just Play Readings with and For Seniors!

Don Quixote – a script

by Peter Anderson and Colin Heath

An adaptation of the epic novel by Miguel de Cervantes

An old Manchegan landowner, addicted to books of chivalry, becomes a knight-errant and sets out to right the wrongs of the world. With his horse Rocinante and his squire Sancho Panza, he battles windmills that he takes for giants, slaughters sheep he mistakes for evil knights, and frees convicts he wrongly believes to be innocent, all in the name of his imaginary love Lady Dulcinea. When his exploits are immortalized in a famous novel, he and all of Spain are caught up in his delusions and celebrity, until he meets his final challenge with the Knight of the Mirrors.

Tuesday May 28th
